The Szabad Nep quotes from the London Daily Herald in connection with VOA head Theodore Streibert's VOA request for an enormous sum from a senate subcommittee for propaganda to keep the British from the Communists.

"It seems he wishes to flood us with leaflets and play records for us. Let the voice be still for once, stick its leaflets in its pocket and listen to this: "Great Britain will always choose freedom, even if the Statue of liberty decides otherwise,..." The United States shall take our interests into consideration. Less Voice - more understanding".

End.
