

Statement of Marosan, 6 July, 1957

Three days after the publication of the communiqué of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union which accused Molotov, Kaganovich and Malenkov, Marosan stated that the Hungarian Communist Party should follow the Soviet example and "stamp out with iron discipline all that rear their heads against it".