

ENTERPRISES VISITED--Hungarian Government and party leaders are visiting various places of work, enterprises, and institutions throughout the country. Hungarian President Istvan Dobi has been visiting villages and cooperative farms. During these visits Dobi, who was at one time an agricultural worker, exchanged opinions with agricultural workers and peasants on the advantages of cooperative farming methods. On Apr. 23 Karoly Kiss, member of the political committee of the Hungarian Socialist Workers Party, visited Somogy County. At the state farm at Marczah he had a long talk with peasants. Minister of State Gyorgy Marosan is to attend a rally at the Budapest University of Technology on Apr. 26. (Text) (Budapest, English, Apr. 24, 1958, 2000 GMT--L). (UNCLASSIFIED)
